
Zetron Donates $4.5K and 79 Pounds of Food to Hopelink

Zetron and its employees raised $4,500 for Hopelink's 2016 Holiday Food Drive. They also donated 79 pounds of food to the effort and 30 gifts to Hopelink's annual Giving Tree Program.

Redmond, WA, U.S.A., January 3, 2017 – Zetron, a leading provider of mission-critical communications solutions worldwide, donated $4,500 to this year's Hopelink Holiday Food Drive. The contribution includes donations from Zetron employees and matching funds from the company. Zetron employees also donated 79 pounds of food to Hopelink and 30 gifts to Hopelink's Giving Tree program for children from one month to 18 years of age. Hopelink is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that offers an array of programs that assist families in crisis and help achieve self-sufficiency.

"I am very proud that, once again, Zetron and its employees have acted very generously to extend help to those in our community who are in need," said Zetron President and CEO, Brent Dippie. "This comes at a time of year when that need can be felt most acutely. It is an important reminder of some of the most meaningful aspects of the season."

Donate to Hopelink any time of year

Hopelink accepts donations throughout the year. For more information or to make a donation, go to www.hopelink.org.

About Zetron

Zetron has been designing and manufacturing integrated mission-critical communications systems since 1980.
